

Organisation	Issue	Evidence/Explanation	Recommendation
SPACE	Delay with conclusive grounds decisions is a barrier to support for victims of child criminal exploitation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Without safeguarding measures in place, will continue to be manipulated by traffickers and at increased risk of C19 while travelling as part of criminal networks • Parents face challenges implementing adequate safeguarding measures as authorities do not believe young people are victims • Increased risk of criminalisation without support triggered by formal recognition as a victim • Without support, are at increased risk of contracting the virus 	Prioritise all outstanding decisions relating to minors and where there is a serious risk of violence and fatality